

Problem Statement

Why Are Plants Unable To Grow In My Apartment?

Details

As a college student living in a historic building with windows that don't open, I wanted to brighten my apartment with indoor plants. Unfortunately, I've had trouble keeping them healthy. The lack of fresh air, possible lead paint issues, and limited natural light may all be impacting their growth.